the lost girl

27 1 1

Chapter 1 by Elizabeth Stevens

One day I was sitting with my brother and two sisters in our front lawn when a car came stare at us my Luke got me out of the way along with himself. He turned to try an save Charley and Hanna, but it was to late they where gone the car hit them my parents die on a hunting trip so Luke took care of us. He was 23 and in college and had a two jobs so he wasn't home a lot but my sister who was 19 and had a job but she works when me and my little sister are at school.

My older sister is on a break year so she can take care on us with my brother she is going to college next year when my brother gradate from college so there is some one that is with use. Hanna is the youngest out of all of us she doesn't have a care in the world she was to young to remeber our parents.

Chapter 2 by Holly Jessen

I remember them how could i forget what they had done those people. sometimes i wonder if im really there child. everything they had done was i just cant explain it i mean i loved them but how how could they do this to us. i was 9 years old i shoudl have to see them do that. Charley Tried to save me from it form see them like that but how was i able to forget and forgive i could not no matter what happened
